

CCCC Women's Retreat

March 16 - 17, 2018

Forgetful Girl Meets Faithful God

Why God Wants Us to Remember and How it Can Change Our Lives

Kristi Stoughton is from Hudson NH, where she currently resides with her husband Brian. As a speaker for women's events, Kristi has a passion for women to know God's love deeply. She worked in the secular business world for more than 20 years, where she had extensive presentation experience as a speaker for nationwide events. These experiences made Kristi long to be investing her energies in something more lasting, something that would help people get closer to God. God answered her prayers and used these business-world experiences as stepping stones in preparation for a Christian speaking ministry. In addition to the speaking ministry, Kristi is also on staff at by design ministries, an organization whose mission is to equip and support women in ministry and leadership positions. She is the Director for WeConnect, which is the young women's ministry arm of by design.
